

Early Childhood Development (ECD)

What is the New Westminister ECD Committee?

- New Westminister Early Childhood Committee, or ECD Committee, is a group of community people who have come together with a common purpose of wanting to increase the health and well-being of young children and their families.
- It is a community driven initiative that fosters public awareness of the strengths, needs and the gifts of young children & their families, and builds capacity to promote their health and well-being.

What do we do?

- The committee envisions a community with healthy, educated, safe and happy children.
- The committee promotes early childhood development while embracing a 'Children First' attitude.
- The committee works collectively to plan, develop and provide opportunities for young children and their families in New Westminister.

Who are we?

The New Westminister Early Childhood (ECD) Committee includes: Ministry of Children & Family Development, Board of Education of School District no.40, Fraser Health, United Way of the Lower Mainland, City of New Westminister, many New Westminister non-profit agencies who have services for families, several child care facilities, YMCA Child Care Resource & Referral, New Westminister Public Library, Literacy Now, churches, post secondary institutions, parents and interested community members.
